WE'VE GOT NEWS FOR YOU!

SPRING TERM 2026

CEC SUM UP

We want you to read our paper! If you have any interesting news (or gossip) to share with us please do!

Over the last half term we've had the Valentine's bake sale with chocolate covered strawberries to die for! Lots of students have been marking various religious occasions like Ramadan and Lent, and everyone pulled out the stops with their World Book Day costumes! It was great to see an army of minions roaming the school.

CRANTASTIC TEACHERS

When we interviewed Mr Archer, he said "it's amazing to work at CEC and the school is fantastic". Both of his parents were teachers which inspired him to become a teacher himself.

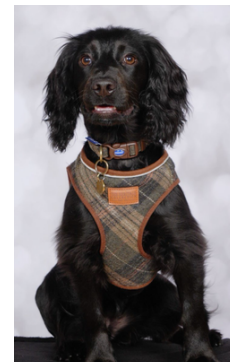

Mr Archer said he loves working with our students, but Mrs Zwolinska added that all teachers love the holidays! If he wasn't a teacher, Mr Archer would be running a pub which we we're not sure would end well.

Mr Archer said that he shares his successes with his loved ones so they can celebrate together.

When we asked him what he hates, he said Harry Potter because "it just doesn't make sense" which some of us agree with because Harry constantly does things he isn't supposed to and becomes a hero for it. Finally, if he was a sea creature Mr Archer would be a penguin "because they're cool". We think he would be a killer whale because he kills us with maths.

MEET THE CEC NEWS TEAM

Our CEC News team are dedicated to creating an interesting and up to date newsletter for students to read. They interview teachers and students about things going on around the campus and they find out fun facts about people too. They also contribute to the creative elements of the paper, like the short stories and word searches!

PET PERSONALITIES

We recently had the pleasure of finding out more about Luna, our school dog. She recently turned 9 months old, on the 14th February and her favourite treats are ham and occasionally pig's ears. Luna's favourite place to walk is Elbury farm where she can be crazy and energetic! She's also loyal and lovely to be around. She loves being here and feels really good about being at school. Luna really likes Miss Jones and Miss Sellick from the business support team and her favourite place to sleep is her crate. At home she likes to sleep at the end of the bed and her favourite people are her mum, maybe her big brothers and Miss Edingham (Arora's mum).
